On this site, you can find the complete menu of Chili's & Brinker International from Bartlesville. Currently, there are 18 menus and drinks available. Chili's has received mixed reviews from customers, with some having great experiences and others not so much. Some customers have reported issues with slow service and cold or burnt food, but managers have stepped in to handle these situations. However, other customers have had outstanding experiences, particularly with servers like Logan who went above and beyond to make their visit enjoyable. Despite low expectations based on experiences at other locations, customers have been pleasantly surprised by the quality of service, food, and drinks at this particular Chili's. The staff have been praised for being accommodating, especially when it comes to special requests, such as finding a quiet table for a customer's autistic daughter. Overall, while there have been some bumps in the road, positive experiences seem to outweigh the negatives, making a return visit likely for many customers.
