The restaurant from Florence offers 22 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average price of $3.5.

Nestled along the scenic Pacific Coast, this quaint dockside restaurant offers a unique culinary experience. Specializing in crab chowder, garlic bread, and live crab, it captures the essence of coastal dining. While many rave about the comforting flavors of the chowder, some patrons voice disappointment over the sparse amount of crab in each bowl. The limited seating adds to its charm, allowing guests to enjoy their meals with stunning views. Overall, this family-owned gem garners a mix of praise for its atmosphere and food, attracting seafood lovers eager to savor the local bounty amidst a picturesque waterfront setting.
