McNamara's Steak and Chop House is a premier dining destination in the heart of the TriValley. Located near the intersection of Highway 580 and 680, this restaurant draws inspiration from the famed chop houses of Chicago. We specialize in serving hand-selected Midwestern corn-fed Angus beef, aged for a minimum of 21 days, along with fresh daily seafood and hand-crafted bread baked seven days a week. Our extensive wine list showcases some of the finest offerings from California. Situated within minutes of major business parks and surrounded by charming cities such as San Ramon, Pleasanton, and Castro Valley, McNamara's is the perfect spot for locals and out-of-town visitors alike.
