The place from Twin Falls offers 17 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $9.0. This Chinese restaurant has received mixed reviews from customers, with some describing it as not the best but not the worst. One customer was disappointed with the gummy rice on the sushi and the cloudy chicken at the Mongolian grill, while another expressed frustration over an early delivery. One guest found the buffet to be the worst they had ever experienced, citing overly salty dishes. Another visitor had a negative experience with the grill cook but found the sweet and sour pork to be somewhat edible. On the positive side, customers appreciated the friendly and helpful employees, the cleanliness of the hot and cold bars, and the delicious buffet offerings. Some praised the large menu, reasonable pricing, and large portions, while others enjoyed the delivery service and hot food. Despite mixed feedback, many customers expressed plans to return to the restaurant.
