The Card of The B Q Place from Fayetteville contains about 25 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $5.0. Located in a trailer, this barbecue joint once used real wood for smoking meat, but has since switched to electric smokers, resulting in a loss of flavor. Despite some loyal customers returning for convenience, the food no longer holds its initial appeal. An unfortunate series of events, including accusations of health violations and unreliable opening hours, have clouded the restaurant's reputation. However, loyal patrons praise the balanced barbecue sauce and delicious sandwiches. A hidden gem, this eatery offers top-notch brisket and pulled pork, leaving customers hoping it avoids closure.
