The restaurant from West Hartford offers 17 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average price of $7.4. In the competitive landscape of local Chinese cuisine, this restaurant seems to have taken a downturn, evidenced by a mix of customer experiences. While some patrons appreciate the affordable and decent-quality takeout, others express frustration with inconsistent food quality, excessive saltiness, and careless packaging leading to messy situations. While a few customers continue to enjoy customized dishes and find comfort in nostalgic flavors, many recommend seeking alternatives such as New Asia or Great Taste for better experiences. Overall, the establishment's charm is overshadowed by service variability and declining freshness, raising questions about its future in the community.
