The restaurant from Miami Beach offers 18 different menus and drinks on the card at an average price of $13.9. Nestled in the heart of Miami, this popular poke spot offers a delightful blend of freshness and customization. Diners rave about the high-quality ingredients, particularly the spicy tuna, and appreciate the generous portions and variety. However, navigating large group orders can prove challenging due to the lack of bowl labeling, turning mealtime into a game of detective. While some have noted rising prices and occasional service hiccups, the overall experience remains solid, thanks to speedy service and friendly staff. With convenient takeout options and nearby Japanese snacks, this spot is worth a visit—just beware of parking!
