Here you can find the menu of Sunset Cafe N Grill in Cocoa Beach. At the moment, there are 17 courses and drinks on the card. Nestled along the water, this restaurant offers stunning sunset views that enchant guests. While patrons rave about the picturesque setting, the food and service often leave much to be desired. The menu, though small and somewhat pricey, serves a mix of seafood options, with some dishes like the grouper sandwich and seafood platter earning praise. However, issues like soggy fries, slow service, and credit card fees can dampen the experience. Live music adds to the atmosphere, albeit sometimes at the expense of conversation. Overall, this spot excels in ambiance, yet its culinary and service consistency could improve.
