The Card of Rancho Bravo Tacos from Seattle contains about 20 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $2.3. Nestled in Seattle, this walk-up taco shop captures the essence of authentic Mexican cuisine with its fast service and affordability. Diners rave about delicious offerings such as steak burritos and pork tacos, which boast vibrant flavors reminiscent of Mexico City's street food. While some find the taco sizes modest, the generous portions and complimentary sauces more than compensate. With a simple outdoor seating area, it's ideal for a quick takeaway. Though mixed reviews on the service exist, many patrons agree that this local eatery is a treasure worth frequenting for a refreshing taste of Mexico.
