Bon Creole in New Iberia is a hidden gem that deserves 6 stars, according to one reviewer. Their shrimp po'boy is the best and biggest around, with fresh shrimp, perfect bread, and delicious remoulade.

The roast beef po'boy is also a must-try. Another reviewer raved about the sausages, chicken gums, and fantastic portions of the dishes. While one customer found the gumbo bland, the shrimp po'boy was a standout. The atmosphere of the restaurant, complete with a bobcat in the men's restroom, adds to the experience. The crab pot boy and bratbeef-po-junge were also highly recommended. Even a simple hamburger impressed another diner. The combo po-boy with catfish, shrimp, and clams was another standout, earning a resounding "WOW" from patrons. Bon Creole is a must-visit in New Iberia for delicious and filling meals for the whole family.
