Here you can find the menu of The Gisborne Collective in Gisborne. At the moment, there are 19 courses and drinks on the card. Overall, The Collective received mixed reviews. Some diners raved about the fantastic food, such as the double-boiled pork belly and sensational parmas. However, others were less impressed, citing slow service, noise levels, and issues with dessert. Despite this, most customers mentioned the friendly staff and pleasant atmosphere. An exception was the complaint about loud children running around. The general consensus appears to be that The Collective offers great food and value for money, but would benefit from improvements in service and ambiance.
