Li Wah is a charming Chinese restaurant that delights guests with its generous portions and flavorful dishes, particularly the House Special Chow Mein. While the food consistently receives high praise for its authenticity and taste, the restaurant's ambiance and cleanliness leave much to be desired. Many diners note a retro vibe, but the decor is in need of modernization, with some areas appearing shabby. Service is a mixed bag, with reports of delays and inconsistencies, though friendly staff do shine through. Overall, Li Wah offers great value dining, making it a go-to spot for affordable, satisfying meals despite some operational shortcomings.
