The restaurant from Fort Worth offers 18 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $5.4. This local taco shop inspires a wide array of reactions, highlighting both its strengths and weaknesses. Patrons rave about the authentic Mexican flavors and warm, friendly service, with standout dishes like Tapatíos and barbacoa receiving high praise. However, some diners report disappointing experiences, citing issues with food quality, digestibility, and inaccurate operating hours. While a few appreciate the atmosphere and reasonable prices, others lament the dining conditions, such as cramped parking and limited air conditioning. Overall, this restaurant has the potential to delight but may also leave some diners wanting.
