The place from Chattanooga offers 19 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $86.0. Panda Express has garnered a mixed bag of reviews, reflecting both disappointing and delightful dining experiences. Many customers express frustration over poor service, especially regarding order mix-ups and long wait times. Instances of food quality concerns, such as unappetizing discoveries in meals, have left diners disheartened. However, other patrons praise the tasty offerings, like walnut shrimp and sweet and sour chicken, highlighting the freshness of the food. Despite the operational challenges and occasional shortages during peak hours, some visitors find value in the cafeteria-style setting. Overall, while many urge caution, satisfied diners continue to appreciate its convenience and flavor.
