The menu of Ihop from North Little Rock includes 19 meals. On average, meals or drinks on the card cost about $7.8. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. Recent visits to IHOP reveal a dining experience marked by stark contrasts. Many patrons have reported initial displeasure, citing issues like unpleasant odors, poor service, and cleanliness concerns, including sightings of pests. However, there is a silver lining as several diners noted significant improvements in staff friendliness, prompt service, and food quality. New management appears to be making strides in rectifying previous complaints, introducing a loyalty point system that rewards frequent diners. Yet, inconsistency in food preparation and some service hiccups suggest that while progress is evident, there is still work to be done to elevate the IHOP experience to its former glory.
