On this website, you can find the complete menu of New Great Wall from South Orange. Currently, there are 17 courses and drinks available. In the vibrant tapestry of local dining, this Chinese restaurant has garnered mixed reviews. While some patrons praise its fresh and flavorful offerings, particularly its Szechuan dishes and generous portions, others lament a decline in quality, citing stale ingredients and bland flavors. Highlights include the steamed broccoli in garlic sauce, and recommendations for dishes like Singapore noodles and shrimp lo mein. However, concerns over food safety and disappointing experiences with items like shrimp rolls and vegetable egg foo young have led some to swear off the establishment entirely. Overall, the experience varies greatly, urging potential diners to tread cautiously.
