On this webpage, you can find the complete menu of The Dabney from Washington, D.C.. Currently, there are 22 dishes and drinks up for grabs. A recent visit to a Michelin-starred restaurant in Washington left some customers feeling unwelcome, as they were told children were not allowed. One patron had a negative experience due to feeling unwell and being forced to pay for food not consumed. However, other visitors had a completely different experience, praising the cozy underground bar's ambiance and high quality service. The curated wine list, tasty small bites, and attentive staff were highlights for many guests. Overall, while some found the restaurant bordering on pretentious, most enjoyed the excellent food, service, and atmosphere, making it a popular choice for a special night out.
