On this webpage, you can find the complete menu of Pho 97 from Honolulu. Currently, there are 20 courses and drinks up for grabs. Pho 97 is a total mom and pop spot serving up big portions of average quality pho with tons of produce. While the pho itself may not be noteworthy, it comes with a generous amount of basil, sprouts, and peppers. The spring rolls and salad are also packed with plenty of lettuce and mint. Despite some mixed reviews on the pho, the staff at Pho 97 is consistently praised for being very friendly. One solo traveler even found the noodle soup to be amazing, with perfect taste. Service is quick and friendly, with the dining room noted as clean and cool, although a bit overcrowded with tables. Visitors can expect yummy pho and shrimp summer rolls, good social distancing measures, and fairly quiet dining experience. For many, Pho 97 has been hailed as the best spot for pho on the island, with rich, fragrant broth and well-formed noodles. The portions are massive, and the overall dining experience is enjoyable, with the staff being super friendly and efficient. For those looking for a local spot with amazing pho in North America, Pho 97 in Chinatown comes highly recommended.
