The Card of Tata's Burrito from Centennial includes about 20 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $4.3. The restaurant offers a menu item that stands out, the asada and chili relleno burrito for $10.25. However, there seems to be a pricing discrepancy and a lack of quality control. Some patrons have noticed a decline in food quality over time, with one reviewer noting that it is their last visit to the establishment. One customer had a negative encounter with an employee in the drive-thru, leading to a decision to never return. Despite some negative experiences, there are positive aspects highlighted as well. The breakfast burritos receive high praise for their taste, with a spicy green chili adding a kick. Authentic tacos, including carnitas and carne asada, are also recommended by another review. Overall, the food receives mixed reviews, but the fast service and affordable prices make it a convenient choice for many customers.
