Cafe Rio, once celebrated for its vibrant flavors and welcoming ambiance, is now facing a steep decline in both food quality and service. Patrons lament the recent changes, citing skyrocketing prices and a significant drop in taste, with dishes often described as dry and poorly prepared. Customers have expressed disappointment in the management's overhaul, noting that the attentive staff of the past has been replaced by inexperienced workers. While the food still boasts potential, issues with carelessness in preparation and rude service mar the experience. Many hope for a return to its former glory, yet current sentiments suggest otherwise.
