The restaurant from New Johnsonville offers 18 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $10.7. Tequila John's restaurant has had mixed reviews from customers, with some experiencing long wait times for their food and feeling dissatisfied with the portion sizes for the price. One customer was even refused a cup of tea to go. However, others have praised the delicious food, great service, and friendly staff. Despite some negative feedback, there is potential for improvement, especially in terms of addressing customer concerns about food quality and wait times. Ultimately, Tequila John's offers a mix of experiences, but for those who enjoy Mexican food, it may be worth a visit.
