The place from Myrtle Beach offers 19 different menus and drinks on the card at an average price of $6.7. Tropical Smoothie has garnered mixed reviews, highlighting both its delicious menu and significant service challenges. While many patrons rave about the refreshing smoothies and various menu options, experiences in the drive-thru have been notably disappointing. Extended wait times and miscommunications about orders have frustrated customers, with reports of inadequate customer service compounding the issue. However, some staff members, like Tia, have been praised for their exceptional service. With discounts available through an app, loyal fans appreciate the value, even as they navigate the inconsistencies in service. Overall, Tropical Smoothie offers great flavors but requires attention to operational efficiency.
