The restaurant from San Francisco offers 20 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average $11.1. Nestled in Lower Haight, this poke shop offers an array of customizable bowls that leave diners divided. While some praised the attentive staff and delightful atmosphere, others criticized the disappointing fish-to-rice ratio and lackluster flavor in several dishes. Customers noted that the quality of tuna was merely average, and many felt the vegetable toppings overshadowed the main ingredients. Despite these drawbacks, a few glimpsed the potential of the vegan options and fun experiences. Ultimately, while the poke selection may not capture the essence of true Hawaiian cuisine, the charm of the spot encourages further exploration.
