The Card of Peking from San Andreas contains about 17 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $10.1. Peking Restaurant offers solid food at slightly higher prices, with a menu featuring interesting dishes. The mango beef and dumplings were highlights. The restaurant's decor could use some updating, with sticky condiment jars and dirty carpets. Despite this, the service was good with complimentary hot tea. Some customers experienced slow service and questionable kitchen practices, but others praised the delicious and flavorful food. Overall, Peking Restaurant provides a value and enjoyable dining experience, with loyal customers willing to make the drive for favorites like mushu and crab asparagus soup.
