You can view the categories on the menu below. Lands End has quickly become a beloved spot in Dinkytown, renowned for its authentic British pastries and welcoming atmosphere. Diners rave about the perfectly balanced pasties, featuring generous fillings and a golden, crispy exterior, appealing to both vegetarians and meat lovers alike. The inviting ambiance, paired with friendly service from owners Jon and Pete, enhances the experience, making it a favorite for locals and visitors. While the apple pie received mixed reviews, the restaurant excels with its range of imported British snacks and treats. Overall, Lands End promises a delightful culinary journey worth revisiting.
