Nestled in a bustling area, this Korean BBQ restaurant generates a spectrum of reviews. Diners praise its unlimited portions and high-quality dishes like bulgogi and kalbi, alongside attentive service from friendly staff, especially during off-peak hours. However, some guests report unsettling cleanliness issues, with dirty environments and slow service detracting from the overall experience. Acknowledgment from the staff sometimes falters, leading to frustrations for patrons waiting for tables. Despite these inconsistencies, standout offerings like the Milkus soju and varied buffet items keep some customers returning, highlighting a restaurant rich in potential yet needing significant improvements.
