Betsy Ross, previously known as Bridge Way, has undergone significant changes that have left some patrons longing for the past. While the restaurant's recent makeover has updated its appearance, the food no longer carries the comforting, home-cooked feel it once did. Service remains commendable, with staff recognized for their professionalism and attentiveness. However, menu items have become inconsistent, attracting mixed opinions on taste and quality. Despite some complaints about blandness and diminished portions, many appreciate the welcoming atmosphere and abundant offerings, indicating potential for a revitalized dining experience. The restaurant's cash-only policy and accessible layout are noteworthy pluses.
