A recent visit to a restaurant in Whistler has garnered mixed reviews from diners. One couple was disappointed with their lacklustre anniversary meal, citing issues with their table and lack of attention from staff. Despite the good service from an initially promising server, they felt let down and would not recommend the restaurant. On the other hand, another group had a fantastic experience, calling the restaurant a hidden gem in Creekside. They raved about the food and service, declaring it one of the best meals they've ever had. Another diners were also impressed with the service, food, and cozy atmosphere, recommending the west coast bouillabaisse and short ribs. Overall, while some encountered service issues, others found the restaurant to exceed their expectations and would eagerly return for another meal.
