The restaurant from Washington, D.C. offers 35 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $14.5. The restaurant in question did not fare well according to some recent reviews. Customers complained about slow service, forgettable food, and dishes that missed the mark in terms of taste. On the positive side, some patrons enjoyed certain dishes like scallops and crab cakes, and praised the ambiance and service of the restaurant. While the management made efforts to rectify issues such as delayed food and training of servers, the overall consensus seems to be mixed at best. Despite its historic charm, it appears that the restaurant may not be the top choice for a special occasion or fine dining experience.
