The menu of Del Fuego from Babylon includes 41 menus. On average, menus or drinks on the card cost about $13.9. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. Nestled in a vibrant atmosphere, this restaurant appears to have a polarizing reputation among patrons. Many rave about the delicious offerings, from empanadas to brisket tacos, highlighting the friendly service and enjoyable ambiance. However, some diners criticize the food quality, for instance, chewy chicken and misleading lobster dishes. Concerns regarding disability accommodations and service animal policies have also emerged, indicating room for improvement in customer care. While the experience can be hit-or-miss, the communal enthusiasm for certain dishes and attentive staff suggests that a visit might still be worthwhile for adventurous food lovers.
