The Hi-Mark Story

In 1997, the Ohio River flooded Cincinnati's historic East End neighborhood and was declared a federal disaster zone. As the area began rebuilding in 2015, the groups behind Eli's BBQ and Pho Lang Thang got together to create something that was missing in the area; a neighborhood bar featuring drinks (both kinds—cold and refreshing), food (especially wings), and games (both analog games, and all of the local sports teams). The entire interior of the building was reconfigured and the main floor was raised up and out of the historical flood plain, giving the inspiration for the name of the establishment, The Hi-Mark.
